1980, and once again with a new year comes a new Gang Show. In these changing times it is pleasant to find unchanging standards in something.

I am sure that you will find the same high standard of performance which the District has come to expect from Gang Show will be matched by this year's cast.

You may recall that last year I mentioned that three of our Scouts were attending the World Jamboree in Iran. The venue was altered, for obvious reasons, but the Scouts did travel to America and they are mounting a small exhibition of mementoes, etc., in the foyer. I suggest it is well worth a few moments of your time.

A BEDTIME STORY FOR SCOUTS OF ALL AGES by Uncle Penden of Penden Fair

About 3,000 years ago, give or take an odd summer or winter, there was a Pharaoh in ancient Egypt whose name was Cheops. Now one day Cheops, who was a very vain man, decided to build a Great Pyramid as his tomb and an everlasting monument. For ten years 300,000 slaves quarried the stone, and for a further ten years they toiled building the pyramid, and to this day it is still there.

When it reached 450 ft in height, Pharaoh ordered a huge gong, 50 ft in diameter in pure gold, to be placed at its summit. The only way they could do this was to pack 100,000 slaves down one side of the pyramid to create a sloping wall and get 5,000 slaves to drag the gong over them.

However, the cries of anguish and pain from the slaves proved too great for Pharaoh to bear. So he had an idea. He would order a huge choir and they would sing at the top of their voices to drown the screams of pain while the gong was being hauled to the top.

Gang Show Scouts numbering 200,000 from the then known world were summoned to surround the pyramid. The slaves were laid and packed down the side and the gong placed in position. The order was given for the haul to commence. Then it was that, with one mighty voice, the Gang Show Scouts gave forth: 'We're hauling a gong on the chest of the slaves ...'

Uncle Penden will be pleased to see you at . . .
