Ralph Reader, that wonderfully vital character who dreamed up the Gang Show half a century ago and who sadly died last spring, would have been proud of our young people this week.

Much of Ralph's genius shines through this, the 34th Harpenden and Wheathampstead District Gang Show.

It was a genius which went further than music and comedy on stage, for it brought out the best in young people as individuals and as a team.

This is just what our community needs, not only for a few days, but throughout the four seasons. That is why I hope that a little of the Gang Show camaraderie rubs off far and wide.

The cast and the backroom people thank you for coming tonight. We are sure you will enjoy what the younger generation has to offer you.

John Dymoke
Chairman
