46th GANG SHOW

1995

50p

FROM THE PRODUCER

The Gang Show is an historic institution in Harpenden. October 1949 saw the first, and with the second in January 1951, it has been an integral part of New Year festivities in the town ever since. (Proof of this were the sore heads clearly visible at the start of the Technical Rehearsal on Sunday 1 January!).

Those of you who come year after year will see the great progress made by the young people up on stage, from cowering Cub to strutting front row Venture Scout. In the media hype of today we see so much negative comment about the youth. Let the media come and watch this show - then see what the reports say. Scouting is all about taking a constructive place in society whilst having a good time. The Gang's fervent hope is that this comes across in the entertainment that you will enjoy today.

Harpenden Gang Show has always had a policy of no auditioning. We firmly believe that any member of the Scout Association in the Harpenden and Wheathampstead District, whatever his or her ability, should take part if they want to. This year, however, this policy has been stretched almost to breaking point when 74 scouts turned up to the first rehearsal - 20 more than ever before. For simple reasons of lack of space (and sanity of the production team) as well as legal obligations, we have unfortunately had to ration appearances on stage for the younger members of the cast.

My heartfelt thanks go out to all those whose names appear in the programme, whether cast or backstage, and also to their parents and families who have put up with an awful lot from the show's conception in March through to start of rehearsals in September and performance in January. Particular thanks for all their support go to my wife Claire and Angela's husband Geoff, as they have had no option but to live and breathe Gang Show.

The cast have put everything they have got into the Show. We hope you get as much enjoyment watching and listening as we have done rehearsing and performing.

We look forward to seeing you again next year

An amazing world of adventure, fun and excitement for kids of all ages!
