Ralph Reader

The Harpenden and Wheathampstead District Gang Show is based on an original idea by the late Ralph Reader C.B.E.

INSPIRATION

From the UK Chief Commissioner

To the Gang in Harpenden

Gang Show so often epitomises the very best of what Scouting is able to offer; for some, the very first opportunity to appear on stage or to develop a new skill, whilst for other more experienced members, a chance to develop further and to showcase their many talents.

Like all other Scouting activities, this can only be achieved through the volunteers who help behind the scenes and without whom the show simply would not be possible.

Sorry that neither Bear nor I will be able to be with you this year; however, having enjoyed an excellent performance last year, I am sure you will have a great time and we wish you all the very best for another successful year.

Wayne Bulpitt
UK Chief Commissioner

INSPIRATION

From the District Commissioner

Gang Show is an inspiration for everyone who sees it, and it has been for the last 61 years. We can take it for granted, but we are extremely fortunate in Harpenden. A tradition of outstanding musical direction and dedication from a fantastic and diverse group of volunteers create the opportunity for the young people of this District to deliver a consistently amazing standard of dramatic and musical performance which, in my opinion, can justifiably claim to be the best Gang Show, anywhere, period.

What is not so apparent to the casual observer is that the young people riding along on the crest of a wave in front of you are not just an inspiration as performers, they are also outstanding in other ways.

Did you know, for example, that this year Explorer units in Harpenden and Wheathampstead didn't only win the most gruelling expedition challenge in Home Counties scouting, Peak Assault; they came 1st, 2nd, 4th, 6th and 9th out of a total of 57 teams from across the whole of Hertfordshire. It comes as no surprise that Green Beret, the equivalent competition for Scouts aged 10-14, was won this year by a team from the 12th Harpenden troop in the face of fierce competition from 120 teams from the county.

Seven of the top 25 places were taken by teams from Harpenden, Wheathampstead and Kimpton. Our Cubs and Beavers are also learning to enjoy the thrill of the outdoors through District Cub Camps, Beaver Sleepovers and Family Camps. In this District in 2009, we had more than 2009 nights away!

Did you know that Scouts of all ages in the district are outstanding in their service to the community, locally and internationally? Every year Cub Scouts from across the district get together to deliver Christmas cards for the elderly, a service so special that it caught the attention of the BBC this year. Members of all ages from 9th Harpenden and Harpenden Explorer Scouts have carried Christmas trees to customers' cars, to raise money for Shelterboxes for disasters like the tsunami. Scouts and leaders from our District helped build classrooms in Ghana and supported Luton Hoo Walled Garden. Make a date to watch us celebrate the Scout movement on Sunday 25th April, with our annual St. George's Day parade through town.

Expect to be inspired and bowled over, by the show of strength, as the majority of the 1100 Scouts and 200 Scout Leaders that Harpenden now boasts, turn out with their friends from our sister organisation, the Guide Association. They'd all love to see you, seeing them. It's an awesome proportion of such a small town's population that get involved every week in something so worthwhile. Everybody in the District can draw inspiration from what our young people do.

"Together – when they're all together – we don't know how lucky we are!"

Jane Murray
District Commissioner

From the Producer

61 years and still going strong!

Our Diamond Anniversary celebrations last year were memorable, but as the second-longest continuously running Gang Show in the world, we are certainly not resting on our laurels; this year's Show has had the same meticulous preparation as ever. Watch out for the inevitably innovative offering from the youngest members of the Gang, a bonus dance number, some great sketches and fantastic singing and dancing from a Gang Show cast for whom "audition" is a very dirty word! We welcome all Cubs, Scouts and Explorers with open arms.

A packed stage with 152 participants, none of whom is over 18 years old, is testimony to the fact that Scouting in Harpenden is as popular today as it has ever been. And while we had to turn away 84 young people (what a great problem to have!), we always love to hear from people with suitable talents in music, choreography or other creative skills who could join the production or backstage teams – you only have to ask!

In the meantime, we invite you to sit back, enjoy an entertaining and inspiring show and, in the words of our opening song, "celebrate another day of life"!

Ewan Murray
Producer

Putting together a show can be a bit like running a marathon – months of preparation and training before the buzz of the day itself and then the looking back on a job well done. Is that why I'm doing the Edinburgh Marathon on 23rd May, then? There are three reasons: (i) I'm slightly mad; (ii) it's a personal challenge; (iii) to raise money for Water Aid to provide clean water for those in the world who do not have this basic necessity. If you'd like to donate, please go online and visit www.justgiving.com/RunEwanRun

Memories

Katy Turberville

Katy was once on the stage herself back in the 1980s and enjoyed being part of such a great show when she could neither dance nor sing!

Katy then got involved when she was a Venture Scout Leader and took on the role of make-up, the year that Ewan decided all the faces needed to be ghouls and ghosts for the Monster Mash – a baptism of fire.

From there she moved on to refreshments in the kitchen and then to Front of House. "Front of House is a fantastic job", she claims, "as the front of house team gets to see all the smiling faces and teary eyes leave the auditorium after yet another great show."

Mark Hubbard

Mark feels his talents are best suited to working backstage rather than on the stage. He has enjoyed being part of the Gang Show for approx 10 years, first doing scenery then curtains and now he helps rig the TV monitors that broadcast the show live into each dressing room. This year for the first year he will proudly watch his son in the Cub number.

Jemma Finch

Jemma has been involved with the show for over 20 years! She was in it as a Venture Scout and, on returning from University, she joined the production team.

Jemma enjoys all the singing and music and loves putting the show together. "I get a buzz from the performance when all our careful planning comes together. My favourite bits are the opening and the finale. When the curtain opens, the lights sparkle, the stage is full of singing people and the audience clap and cheer."

Liz Barringer

Liz has been working in the Wardrobe team for 12 years since her sons were in the Venture Scouts. She feels making the many new costumes and overseeing the countless alterations is her way of supporting Scouting and looks forward to seeing the finished results. She is delighted when she sees the stage just as she visualised it when developing the costumes.

She enjoys being part of the huge team of sewing ladies.

Ginny St. John Glew

Ginny was in her staff room at work when she happened to tell another member of staff and Gang Show crew that her daughter was going to be in Gang Show that year! That was it; she was persuaded to join the sewing ladies and has enjoyed making all sorts of costumes, including one for a cub which utilised her daughter's old bikini!

Margaret Melville

Margaret is a truly experienced member of the Wardrobe team. She has been involved with sewing costumes for approximately 38 years! She recalls being delivered cut out costumes, to sew whilst her three small girls were asleep. Her daughters went on to be members of the Venture Scouts and got so much from being part of the Unit and part of the Gang Show that she feels this is her way of giving something back.

Margaret does enjoy watching the show but it is the team spirit that really makes it for her. "At the technical rehearsal, when all the groups of people who have been working independently – the scenery designers, painters, the lighting team, costumes and production – all come together and pull together, the team spirit really shines through."

Richard Washbrooke

Richard was in the show as a Cub in 1972! He sang a solo of "Who Will Buy?" from Oliver! He can no longer reach those high notes!! He was also a dancing girl (when it was tradition to dress the Cubs up as girls and do a dance routine,) and progressed to being a front row boy!

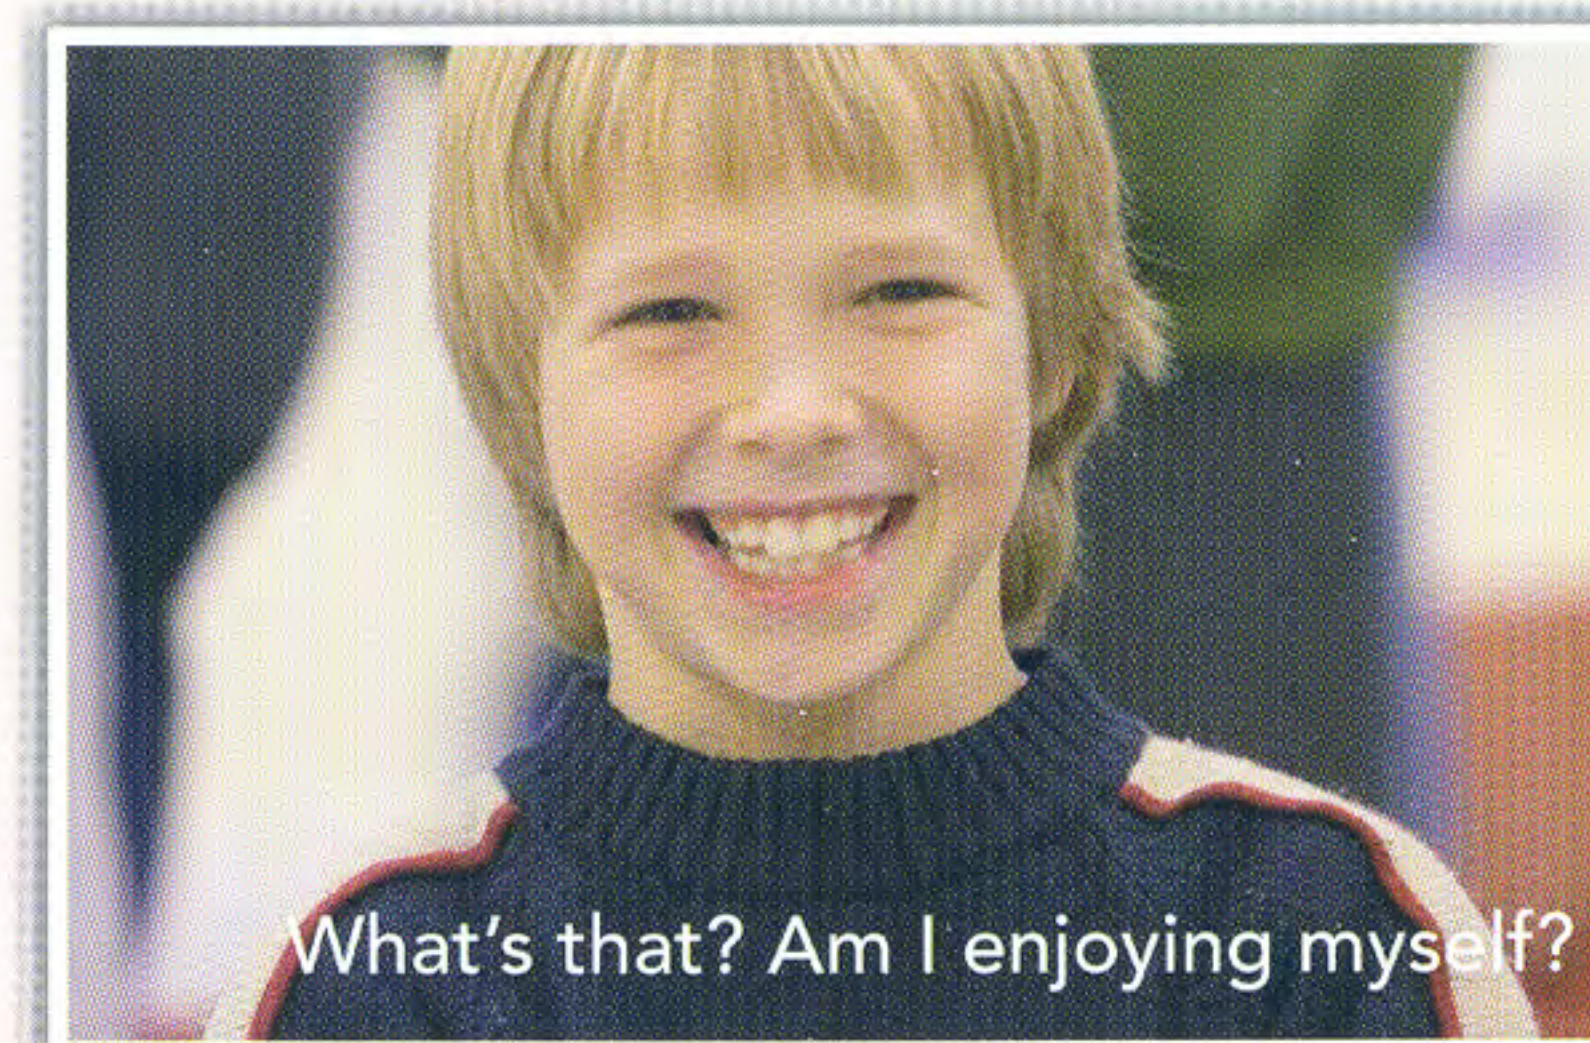

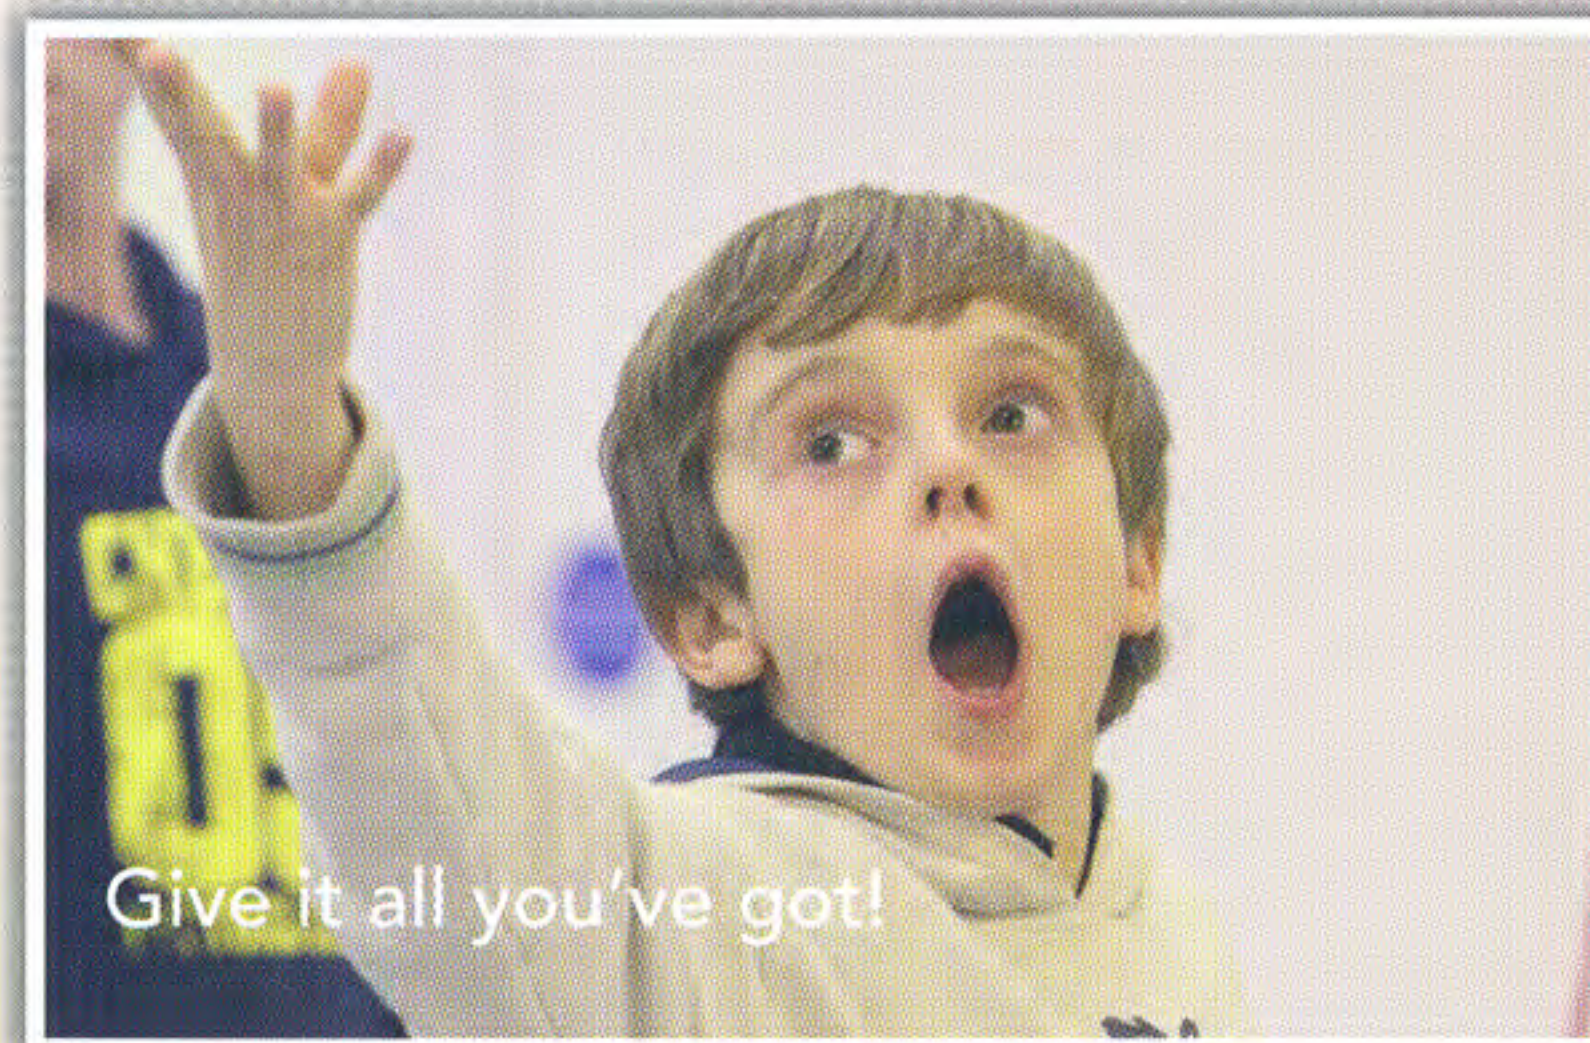

Three years ago he was walking past the Public Hall over the weekend of the dress rehearsal and popped in to ask if we had anyone taking photos. That was it, Richard is now our official photographer. He feels proud to be able to offer his expertise as a professional photographer to the show, so giving something back to the Gang.

For him, the best bit is capturing the atmosphere of the event in a photo. A smiling, happy, singing Gang member's photo that the performer's family wants to keep.

Andy Barford

Andy was first in the show as a Scout in 1973! More recently he has been involved with Props and now he is our resident "Call Boy". He has a son in the "Horrid Gang" and enjoys watching familiar faces in the Cubs, Scouts and Explorer Scouts grow through the show year on year.

SING ALONG

Together

Together, when we're all together

We know how lucky we are –

The world around us is everything;

The sound of music, the songs we sing,

And even in the coldest winter

The warmest summer arrives.

We share together, when we're together,

The best years of our lives.

On the crest of a wave

We're riding along on the crest of a wave

And the sun is in the sky.

All our eyes on the distant horizon;

Look out for passers-by.

We'll do the hailing,

When other ships are round us sailing.

We're riding along on the crest of a wave

And the world is ours.

Three ways to bring out the creativity in your child

AN HOUR TO ACT

AN HOUR TO DANCE

AN HOUR TO SING

These Stagecoach students are enthralled in their drama class at their local Stagecoach Theatre Arts School. They are doing more than just enjoying themselves. They are learning to speak clearly, cope with an audience, move easily and naturally, become more poised, confident and self-assured. That's the idea behind Stagecoach. The skills we teach don't vanish when the curtain falls, they help young people perform better in life. Courses are available for boys and girls, aged 4 to 16. Classes run for three hours a week alongside the school term. Our students learn the skills they need to act, sing and dance with a bubbly, likeminded, group of friends. There's no audition; enthusiasm is all they need.
