Ralph Reader

The Harpenden and Wheathampstead District Gang Show is based on an original idea by the late Ralph Reader C.B.E.

Give it all you've got!

INSPIRATION

From the District Commissioner

Harpenden and Wheathampstead Gang Show is universally recognised to be one of the very best in the business. Running for over 60 years now, with an average of 36 songs in each show, that's a stunning 2,000-plus fantastic numbers that have been pumped out to a combined audience of more than twice the population of Harpenden.

But Gang Show isn't the only source of fantastic numbers in Harpenden and Wheathampstead Scouting.

Allow me to introduce you to a series of other numbers that may leave you numb.

Did you know that there are 13 different Scout Groups in Harpenden meeting 38 times a week in nine different headquarters across the District?!

Did you know that there are over 1,100 invested Beavers, Cubs, Scouts and Explorer Scouts in Harpenden and Wheathampstead?! - this marks a 50% increase over five years ago?

Did you know that their activities are made possible by the purely voluntary work of 220 adult leaders and helpers who between them give over 8,000 days or evenings of time to the Scout Movement in the District each year?!

Did you know that they spent nights away from home on 68 occasions last year In ever month of the year resulting in nearly 7,000 sleeps from as close as a Scout Hut near you to as far away as Swaziland?!

Did you know that, in 2010, over 1,000 Scouts and Guides marched through the Harpenden town on St George's Day?!

Did you know that, in 2010, over 6,000 badges were awarded for new skills gained by Beavers, Cubs and Scouts in the District including 188 of the highest level Beavers, Cubs and Scouts can obtain – the Chief Scout's Award?! additionally, three of our Explorer Scouts achieved the Queen's Scout award!

But like Gang Show it's not only the individual numbers that are impressive, but also the way it all comes together.

The way Scouting comes together is in the creation of a rounded, accomplished, confident, polite, sociable, and caring person who is delivered to the world richer for their experiences; ready as grown-ups, to give back to society multiplied by 1,100 of course!

Please join me in congratulating the Beavers, Cubs Scouts and Explorer Scouts and thanking the Leaders for yet another fantastic year.

Jane Murray
District Commissioner

INSPIRATION

From Bear Grylls, Chief Scout

Scouting

Scouting offers challenges and adventure to 400,000 young people and 100,000 adults across the UK. We do some pretty amazing things in Scouting but, for us, adventure is a way of life and not just an activity or expedition. Our Scouts grow in confidence by trying out new skills and stretching themselves. Whether it's an Explorer trying out his French on an international trip or a Scout leading her Patrol for the first time, each time we challenge ourselves, it's a step forward. When a Scout stands up a bully, or sticks up for what they believe in; that's an adventure.

"The reason why Scouting remains the largest youth movement in the world is that it's got great core values:

It's about faith, it's about friendship, it's about fun – it's all part of what we want when we grow up."

On Being Chief Scout

"My mission as Chief Scout is to bring the opportunity of adventure to your people worldwide, wherever, or whoever they are."

On Volunteering

"Like me, I am sure you fit your volunteering around a very busy lifestyle: my mum used to say, if you want something doing, ask a busy person. I would really like to say a massive thank you to you, on behalf of all the young people who benefit from Scouting.. It's basically because of what you do. Together, you make the adventure possible."

On The Outdoors

"One of the reasons I became a Scout, was to spend more time with friends in the outdoors. It's among the greatest experiences in life and should be accessible to everyone, no matter where they live, what they look like, or how they grew up."

"Nature and the outdoors are languages that can be learned. Once you identify a beech tree, tie a clove hitch or cook a simple meal over a fire that you've built yourself, you will never forget it."

From the Producer

62 years and still going strong!

We're flying along by the seat of our pants

In the hope that we'll get by.

Words will be learned, bags of talent discerned,

And we'll hold our heads up high.

Sometimes we're flailing,

Though all you see seems like plain sailing

We'll thankfully that's what it looks like to you

So we've done our job!

With apologies to the late Ralph Reader, the cast and the production team go through all sorts of emotion during the four months of rehearsal; hilarity, angst, tears, pain, exhilaration ... the list goes on, but whatever we've been through you can be sure that we will give you our all in the pursuit of entertainment.

I'm not sure how Rachel, our new choreographer, and Mike, our new sketch director, feel after their first Gang Show rollercoaster ride, but we're delighted to have them on board. New blood and old stagers, both in front of and behind the curtains, create the uniquely heady mix of Gang Shows all over the country. We are proud to be part of it, and after 62 years at it, we show no sign of letting up.

Enjoy the Show!

Ewan Murray
Producer

Memories

Sally Clark (Gang Show Committee Chair)

Sally has been involved with the show in various forms on and off for over 20 years. She has only once appeared on the stage - dressed in a leotard, face painted blue and holding an umbrella across her body! As a Venture Scout she was Prop master, making props and delivering them on stage at the appropriate moment. As Venture Scout Leader in the 80's and 90's, she was involved organising Stewards and Front of House. She is currently the Chair of the Gang Show Committee.

She feels that she got so much out of being involved with the show that she is now giving back so as to enable others to also enjoy being part of the Gang Show.

When watching the show she always gets a tingle down the back of her spine as the performers sing and dance their numbers, knowing they have learnt it all since September. "This makes all the committee meetings worth their while!"

Beryl Jeffs (Wardrobe)

Beryl loves the Gang Show and has many memories spanning the 25 years she has been involved, since her daughter Clare first braved the stage back in 1986. Beryl was recruited by Joan Hall & Hazel Ogglesby to sew costumes. One year she made 48 skirts in black, grey, white or navy and they are still in use now. She drafted in the help of her mother and mother-in-law for sewing buttons on orange dungarees, threading elastic into skirts and generally helping out. There was a year when, after the first night, the production team decided they did not like the scout costumes and the costume ladies all set to work cutting out and making new scout 'dancing girl' dresses ready for that evening's show!

The Jeffs family have all been incorporated into the Gang Show. One year Beryl was sewing before the show and also ironing under the stage during show week; Clare was in the show; son Adrian was a Scout helping backstage and painting scenery at Annables Farm; son Alistair was in the mini-gang number; and husband Colin decided they should all be involved and also started painting the scenery.

Beryl thoroughly enjoys the atmosphere and loves seeing the familiar faces year on year and also the children of those familiar faces - some of whom now appear on stage - the Gang Show circle of life.

David Claridge (Programme)

Having got involved initially supporting Scout activities as a parent helper, David then joined the 10th Harpenden Scout Group Committee for a number of years, latterly serving as Chair until this year.

Inspired by all that the Gang Show creates and achieves, during one rehearsal evening, David asked Ewan Murray 'can I help?' and before finishing the sentence, he was welcomed onto the Committee taking on the Programme role for our 60th Production and has continued ever since. "From start to finish, the achievements of all and the enduring memories are truly remarkable!"

Richard Harrington (County Commissioner and Mini-Gang Sketch Writer and Producer)

Richard is the creator and writer of the Cub or Mini Gang number and has been for fourteen years. He debuted with the Lottery Balls and has been generating original ideas ever since. From this year's Clueless and last year's Horrid Henry and his Six Girlfriends, to Phantom of the Panto and Telecubbies, the themes are expertly woven into a story with appropriately adapted lyrics. Before writing the entire Mini-Gang number, Richard did write occasional sketches for the Junior and Senior Gang and was a 9th Harpenden Cub leader; he now has risen to the dizzy heights of County Commissioner. He always worries he will not be able to think of another theme, so you can always collar him and make your own suggestions!

Richard has many fond memories, many proud moments and is lucky to be surrounded by so many able people in the team that not many disasters have come to light. Apparently Jake the Peg kept losing his third leg but the Wardrobe team were able to avoid disaster with safety pins and sellotape just in the nick of time.

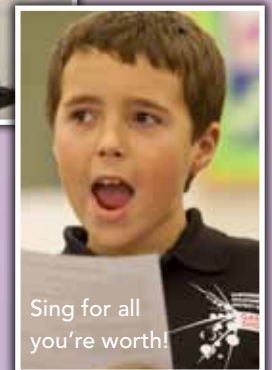

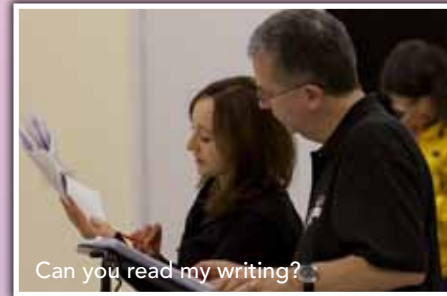

Richard did say that he would give up writing and producing the Mini-Gang number once he was County Commissioner; but last year he was so moved by one Cub who walked five miles on snowy roads to take part in a performance that he decided he absolutely could not give it up.

Jeremy Finch (Sound)

Jeremy has been involved with the show since he first trod the boards as a cub in 1981. He recalls the Ugly Bug Ball number as one of his favourites as a Scout. He ruined his sister's bikini with corks one year in a Scout number, and recalls the fear when he completely forgot his lines in a Right Said Fred solo as a Venture Scout.

He has taken many roles supporting the Show: Make-Up, TV Monitor, Health and Safety, Sketch Production and has been Assistant Sound man for the last six years.

SING ALONG

Together

Together, when we're all together
We know how lucky we are –
The world around us is everything;
The sound of music, the songs we sing,
And even in the coldest winter
The warmest summer arrives.
We share together, when we're together,
The best years of our lives.

On the crest of a wave

We're riding along on the crest of a wave
And the sun is in the sky.
All our eyes on the distant horizon;
Look out for passers-by.
We'll do the hailing,
When other ships are round us sailing.
We're riding along on the crest of a wave
And the world is ours.
